

HYDE PARK FREE LIBRARY

SERVING HYDE PARK SINCE 1927

April 22, 2021

Dear Hyde Park Library Patron,

We've seen a positive response to some earlier advertisements for tonight's Medicare session with financial advisor Dan Calabrese.

This session--which will be informational one and will not involve any sales pitches for products or services--will be a virtual one. Our flyers (see left) did indicate that participants should contact the library to sign up. However, we have since received the ZOOM link and can now give prospective participants that information in this newsletter.

To access the session via computer, just go to this link:

With director Greg Callahan's impending retirement, our current series of HPFL Open Mics comes to a close, our final Open Mic will take place on Sunday, April 25 with a sound check set up for 1:30 and actual performances scheduled for 2:00 PM.

Greg is particularly excited to have his good friend James Leo as featured performer for this final show. His spot will begin at 3:15.

Any remaining open mic performances will take place at 4:00 PM. (As Greg likes to say, "Times approximate, GOOD TIMES guaranteed!")

Performers can sign up in advance for a spot on the list at this link:

Hope to see you there! Help us celebrate the end of a musical era.

Retirement Celebration For Director Greg Callahan

In our last correspondence, we sent out an invitation to all of our patrons and friends to a socially distanced event on Friday, April 30th from 4:00 to 6:00 PM. Please consider stopping by to this "open house" styled-event to help see Greg off as he enters a new chapter in his life. (Details below.)

YOU'RE INVITED!

NEWS FROM THE HYDE PARK LIBRARY CHILDREN'S ROOM

While social distancing considerations should still be observed, we are no longer limiting access to the children's room to one family at a time. While it is conceivable that we may ask some families to wait a few minutes, if too many folks are downstairs in the children's room browsing, we do feel that multiple families can access the collection safely at this time. (Masks are still required for those over two years of age.)

Please consider stopping by at your convenience to take advantage of the many new books and audio-visual materials waiting for you to discover.

And check out our new look (new paint job and a beautiful and colorful new floor.

Keep your eye out for listings of new (outdoor) activities and "take and make" activities available at the children's room desk.

MORE GREAT NEWS: There will be a 2021 Battle of the Books, and we couldn't be happier. This exciting "Jeopardy-styled" competition--which unfortunately did not take place during the height of the COVID pandemic--is being resurrected this year in virtual format. This is great event for the Young Adult crowd, and we're delighted to be able to offer it once again.
