

HYDE PARK LIBRARY PRESENTS

A Backyard Concert Series

EVERY SATURDAY IN JUNE AT 4PM
IN THE COURTYARD

OR IN THE ANNEX IN THE EVENT OF RAIN.

6/4 Hudson Valley Chamber Musicians

A classical woodwind quintet with Norman Dee on the flute, Ann Chukurianon on the oboe, Leigh Myers on the clarinet, Terry Watson on the horn and Donald Venezia on the bassoon.

6/11 Benji Kaplan, Brazilian Jazz

Award-winning guitarist, composer, arranger, multi-lingual vocalist and educator, Kaplan offers a unique look at jazz and classical music informed by his vast musical experiences performing, writing, studying and playing with master Brazilian composers/performers since the age of 18.

6/18 Flash Company

Local Celtic music trio (Eric Garrison, Jim Pospisil and Bryan Maloney) will bring a taste of Ireland to you wherever you are! Performances range from the 18th century tunes of O'Carolan to the work of the Chieftains and the rock-inflected work of contemporary artists.

6/25 Hyde Park Chamber Ensemble

A woodwind quintet from right here in Hyde Park including Linda Rapp (flute), Lory Frankel (oboe), Russell Urban Mead (clarinet), Craig Fryer (French horn) and W. John Knight (Bassoon).

7/2 Rod MacDonald

Well known on the local folk scene, MacDonald is a tenor with a clear voice and wide range. He is often cited for both his musicality and the content of his songs about political and social events.